Purpose

The purpose of this policy and procedure is to outline Wise Workplace Training's approach to managing dissatisfaction, formal complaints and appeals of students, clients, staff and other members of the community. It provides a transparent approach for all complaints and appeals to be addressed in a fair, efficient and confidential manner.

This policy and procedure ensures compliance with Standard 6 of the Standards.

Definitions

Appeal means a request for a decision made by Wise Workplace Training to be reviewed

Complaint means a person's formal expression of dissatisfaction with any product or service provided by Wise Workplace Training

Services means training, assessment, related educational and support services and/or activities related to the recruitment of prospective learners. It does not include services such as student counselling, mediation or ICT support

SRTOs means the Standards for RTOs 2015 – refer definition of 'Standards'

Standards means the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 of the VET Quality Framework which can be accessed from www.asqa.gov.au

Policy

1. Nature of complaints and appeals

Wise Workplace Training responds to all allegations involving the conduct of:

- The RTO, its trainers and assessors and other staff.
- Any third party providing Services on behalf of Wise Workplace Training.
- Any student or client of Wise Workplace Training.

Complaints may be made in relation to any of Wise Workplace Training's services and activities such as:

- the application and enrolment process
- marketing information
- the quality of training and assessment provided
- training and assessment matters, including student progress, student support and assessment requirements
- the way someone has been treated
- the actions of another student

An appeal is a request for a decision made by Wise Workplace Training to be reviewed. Decisions may have been about:

- course admissions
- refund assessments
- response to a complaint
- assessment outcomes / results
- other general decisions made by Wise Workplace Training

2. Principles of resolution

Wise Workplace Training is committed to providing a procedurally fair complaints and appeals process that is carried out free from bias, following the principles of natural justice. Through this policy and procedure, Wise Workplace Training ensures that complaints and appeals:

- Are responded to in a consistent and transparent manner.
- Are responded to promptly, objectively, with sensitivity and confidentiality.
- Are able to be made at no cost to the individual.
- Are used as an opportunity to identify potential causes of the complaint or appeal and take actions to prevent the issues from recurring as well as identifying any areas for improvement.

Wise Workplace Training will inform all persons or parties involved in any allegations made as well as providing them with an opportunity to present their side of the matter.

SC4 Complaints and Appeals Policy & Procedure

Nothing in this policy and procedure limits the rights of an individual to take action under Australia's Consumer Protection laws and it does not circumscribe an individual's rights to pursue other legal remedies.

Where a student chooses to access the complaints or appeals process, Wise Workplace Training will maintain the student's enrolment while the complaints/appeals handling process is ongoing unless otherwise agreed to by the CEO.

3. Timeframes for resolution

Complaints will be finalised as soon as practicable or at least within 30 calendar days, and appeals within 60 days, unless there is a justifiable reason for the matter to take longer.

4. Records of complaints and appeals

Wise Workplace Training will maintain a record of all complaints and appeals and their outcomes on the Complaints and Appeals Register, which will be securely stored according to the Privacy Policy and Procedure.

5. Making a complaint or appeal

Complaints about a particular incident should be made as soon as possible after the incident occurring and appeals must be made within thirty (30) calendar days of the original decision being made.

When making a complaint or appeal, provide as much information as possible to enable Wise Workplace Training to investigate and determine an appropriate solution. This should include:

- The issue you are complaining about or the decision you are appealing – describe what happened and how it affected you.
- Any evidence you have to support your complaint or appeal.
- Details about the steps you have already taken to resolve the issue.
- Suggestions about how the matter might be resolved.

Your complaint or appeal will be acknowledged in writing via email or post within 7 days of receipt.

6. Resolution of complaints and appeals

Some or all members of the management team of Wise Workplace Training will be involved in resolving complaints and appeals as outlined in the procedures.

Where a complaint or appeal involves another individual or organisation, they will be given the opportunity to respond to any allegations made.

Where a third party delivering Services on behalf of the RTO is involved, they will be included in the process of resolving the complaint or appeal.

In the case of an assessment appeal, an assessor who is independent from the original decision will assess the original task again. The outcome of this assessment will be the result granted for the assessment task.

7. Independent parties

Wise Workplace Training acknowledges the need for an appropriate independent party to be appointed to review a matter where this is requested by the complainant or appellant and the internal processes have failed to resolve the matter. Wise Workplace Training may appoint an independent party to be involved in the resolution of a complaint or appeal where it is deemed necessary.

SC4 Complaints and Appeals Policy & Procedure

The independent party (Mediators, ACPET, consultant, etc) recommended by Wise Workplace Training may change pending availability.

If a complainant / appellant wishes to nominate their own independent party to participate in the process, they are responsible for any costs incurred.

Wise Workplace Training will provide complete cooperation with the external mediator investigating the complaint/appeal and will be bound by the recommendations arising out of this process.

The CEO will ensure that any recommendations made are implemented within twenty (20) days of being notified of the recommendations. The complainant or appellant will also be formally notified in writing of the outcome of the mediation.

8. External complaint avenues

Complaints can also be made via the following avenues:

National Training Complaints Hotline:

The National Training Complaints Hotline is a national service for consumers to register complaints concerning vocational education and training. The service refers consumers to the appropriate agency/authority/jurisdiction to assist with their complaint. Consumers can register a complaint with the National Training Complaints Hotline by:

Phone: 13 38 73, Monday–Friday, 8am to 6pm nationally.

Email: ntch@education.gov.au

For more information about the National Training Complaints Hotline, refer to the following webpage: <https://www.education.gov.au/NTCH>

Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA):

Complainants may also complain to Wise Workplace Training's registering body, Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA).

ASQA can investigate complaints about Wise Workplace Training in relation to:

- the quality of our training and assessment
- our marketing and advertising practices

For students:

- ASQA may not be able to investigate complaint if you do not include evidence that you have already exhausted our formal internal complaints process as above.
- If your complaint does not fall within ASQA's jurisdiction, it may be resolved more quickly if you directly contact the agency responsible as listed on the relevant webpage below.
- Please refer to the following webpage below before making a complaint to ASQA: <https://www.asqa.gov.au/complaints/make-complaint-domestic-students/before-you-make-complaint>

For other stakeholders:

- Information about the process and information you should provide is available here: <https://www.asqa.gov.au/complaints/make-complaint-other-stakeholders>
